Introduction

You and the person who sold you the purchase of roofing shingles issued by Owens Corning, Roofing & Asphalt, LLC ("Owens Corning") may enter into an Owens Corning Limited Warranty on Roofing Shingles. However, before you listen to the largest warranty in the industry, we would like to read the following terms and conditions of the warranty carefully, so you can be sure you understand the limitations of this warranty and the procedures for filing a claim.

Whom Does This Warranty Protect?

This warranty is issued to the original owner of the premises and to the person who sells you the purchase of roofing shingles issued by Owens Corning. The original owner is defined as the homeowner who lived in the premises at the time of installation. The person who sells the purchase of roofing shingles is defined as the person who sold you the purchase of roofing shingles issued by Owens Corning.

What about the Installation Date?

The installation date must be submitted at the same time. If the transfer takes place at the end of this warranty for the specific warranty period that applies to your shingles, you will need to provide the installation date.

What Will Owens Corning Pay?

Owens Corning will pay for the cost of repairing or replacing the covered shingles, subject to the limitations of this warranty.

How Long Are You Covered?

You will fully understand the warranty we are making to you. However, the terms contained in this warranty apply only to you, the original owner or the first transferee from the original owner. If the transfer occurs after the expiration of the warranty period, you will not be covered by the warranty.

What About Algae Resistance

If your AR shingles are discolored by algae growth during the first twelve (12) months of the AR Warranty Period, we will cover the cost, including labor (such as discoloration occurs during the AR Warranty Period, you will be entitled to the following remedy:

1. Replacing your AR shingles with non-defective shingles caused by conditions or handling beyond our control. Some examples of these are:
   - Acts of God, such as hail, strong storms or winds over the maximum windspeed listed in the chart at the end of this warranty, or ice damming above the area covered by leak barriers or in other situations.
   - Improper installation of your shingles—installation must be in accordance with our instructions contained in the chart at the end of this warranty, or in other situations.
   - Improper or faulty installation of your shingles—installation must be in accordance with the instructions contained in the chart at the end of this warranty, or in other situations.
   - Improper storage, handling or other conditions beyond our control.

2. Proration—We will prorate the shingles reduced by the amount of use you and the original homeowner have experienced.

3. We will pay you 60/300ths of the reasonable material cost of the affected AR shingles (such as discoloration occurs during the AR Warranty Period, you will be entitled to the following remedy:

4. Improperly designed or installed gutter or downspout systems.

5. Shading, or variations in the color of your shingles, or discoloration caused by algae, fungi, lichen or cyanobacteria (unless covered under the section “What About Algae Resistance” above).

6. Improper building construction or use.

7. Improper flashing or other related work.

8. What About Wind Resistance

Wind resistance is very important in the selection of roofing shingles. For this warranty to apply, your shingles must be installed in accordance with our instructions contained in the chart at the end of this warranty, or in other situations.

9. Improper storage, handling or other conditions beyond our control.

10. Improper or faulty installation of your shingles—installation must be in accordance with our instructions contained in the chart at the end of this warranty, or in other situations.

11. Improperly designed or installed gutter or downspout systems.

12. Improper building construction or use.

What If You Have a Claim?

If you have a claim, you must contact us within 90 days after you discover any problem that may be under warranty. If you wait too long, you may lose your right to file a claim.

Replacement Shingle Variations

Replacement shingles may be of a different color or texture from the original shingles, subject to the limitations of this warranty.

Limitations

Owens Corning does not make any representations or warranties, express or implied, as to the condition or performance of the shingles after the shingles have been subjected to the conditions described above.

This Limited Warranty is effective for 25 years following the date your shingles were installed on your roof. Shortly after we receive your communication, we will evaluate your claim, determine whether your shingles are covered under this warranty and, if covered, we will send you a repair recomendation for your shingles.

To file a claim, you must provide the following information:

- Your name and address
- The date your shingles were installed on your roof
- The color and type of shingles installed on your roof
- The name of the installer and the installer's address
- The name of the retailer who sold you the purchase of roofing shingles and the retailer's address
- The address of your property
- The contact information for the person who installed your shingles

Owens Corning will, at its option, either repair your shingles or replace your shingles with non-defective shingles.

You must retain proof of purchase and installation date with the original warranty transfer. If you ever sell your property, you must transfer the warranty to the new owner.

Effective Date:

This Limited Warranty is effective for an Owens Corning shingles installed on or after 1/2/11.

NOTE: When properly installed, Owens Corning™ Hip & Ridge shingle warranty terms will match with the TRANSFER section, “How Long Are You Covered.” You are not entitled to any Warranty from Owens Corning. This warranty gives you specific legal rights, and you may have other rights that vary from state to state.
